

All the ideas that's fit to patent.®

FERNANDEZ
& ASSOCIATES, LLP

Newsletter

SUMMER 2011

WELCOME INTERNS

- Kevin Xu is a JD candidate at Columbus school of law at Washington D.C. He received his BS in Electrical and Computer Engineering from Rutgers College of Engineering. He was served as a patent examiner in the USPTO for three years.

- Kim Tran is a JD candidate at the McGeorge School of Law with a concentration on Intellectual Property Law. She received her BS in Electrical Engineering from University of Southern California. She has previous worked as a Summer Associate in Porter Scott.

- Louis Wai is a JD candidate at UC Davis School Of Law specialized in Intellectual Property Law. He received his BS in Microbiology from Imperial College in London. He has previously held positions as IP Law Intern at Hogan Lovells in Hong Kong and worked in the Imperial College Malaria Lab as an undergraduate research fellow.

- Mehriar Sharifi is a JD candidate at UC Hasting School of Law. He received his BS in Electrical Engineering from UCLA. He has previous been a Patent Proof reader assisted in drafting Patent Applications.

- Melody Zhang received an LLM specialized in Intellectual Property Law from Santa Clara School of Law. She previous volunteered at the Asian Law Alliance in San Jose.

- Michael Fong is a fresh graduate from UC Berkeley. He previously worked as Financial Advisor Intern, Corporate Social Responsibility Student Consultant and Digital Sales Intern.

- Minjung Kim is a JD candidate at San Francisco School of Law. She also received her PhD in Electrical and Computer Engineering, her MS Electrical and Computer Engineering from Cornell University, and her BS in Electrical Engineering from Tufts University. She previously worked as Senior Engineer in Samsung Electronics Corporation and also worked as a legal Intern at Samsung Construction and Trading Corporation in Seoul.

- Patrick McClay is pursuing a BA in Biomedical Engineering at California Polytechnic State University. He has previous been an Student Assistant at Disability Resource Center in San Luis Obispo.

- Varun Nayini is a JD candidate at University of Southern California Gould School of law. He attended the University of Illinois and received his BA in Science, Materials Science and Engineering. He previous worked as a Project Leader of Infrastructure Integrations in GE Healthcare.